Foreword

Within these covers lies the story of the one hundred and second year of Mitchell College. The administration, faculty, classes, features, and activities can not be separated, for they all blend to make this great institution.

As you turn the pages of this yearbook, we hope you will see a perpetually moving campus—a campus that has life and personality, because all have given a part of themselves to make it so.

As we leave Mitchell, we shall leave a small part of ourselves, but with the idea that we have gained much from two years of life here, let us go forward to shoulder greater responsibilities.

DR. J. H. ALLEN

Dedication

We remember a sincere friendliness that greeted us each day, an interest in our work and activities at Mitchell, and most of all, an understanding of students.

For these, and your many other attributes which you so generously shared with us, we as a class, and as individuals, say thank you and dedicate the Circle of 1958 to you . . .

The worldliness of sophomores is wonderful—to everyone but freshmen . . . And the murmur went through the halls . . . "Have you seen the new music teacher?" . . . "There will be a call meeting of Brownie Troop 201" . . . "What are you going to do next year?" . . . And the answer to Joe's "are there any announcements" . . . was . . . "Elmo Beam has a new car and will be glad to pick anyone up." . . . "Never trust a College Man" . . . "I still say we should have gone to game" . . . "Seven hours of sleep isn't necessary" . . . "I came, I saw, I conquered!"

Let us lay aside our books . . .
and play.

Advertising and Business Staff

Without the hard work of John, Bill and their helpers, our dreams for the Circle would not have come true. Many thanks to those who have worked so earnestly in raising the money—which was the 'must'. Here, Mr. Brown, our adviser, offers his able assistance.

immediate business success!

Class Staff

The duties of this staff are having the class pictures made and collecting the senior activities. Besides meeting their deadline, Peggy, Barbara, and Adis were very patient with two editors who were continually changing the order of things.

GWEN EARLE, Co-Editor
Don't talk to me now—just had an idea!

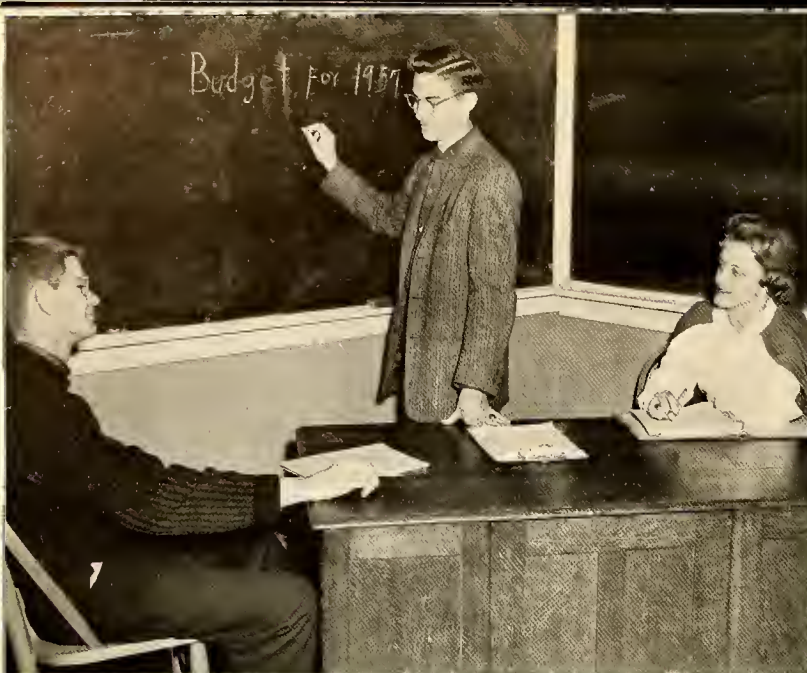

Sally and Joe had a man size headache typing the copy for the whole annual. There was a "whole lot of typing going on."

Features and Activities Staff

Patty Morrison and Patti Gwaltney worked together on the feature and activity section of the Circle. They reported on the dances and club and sport events that make up a typical college year. The circle is indebted to these girls for their time and efforts.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL TEAM

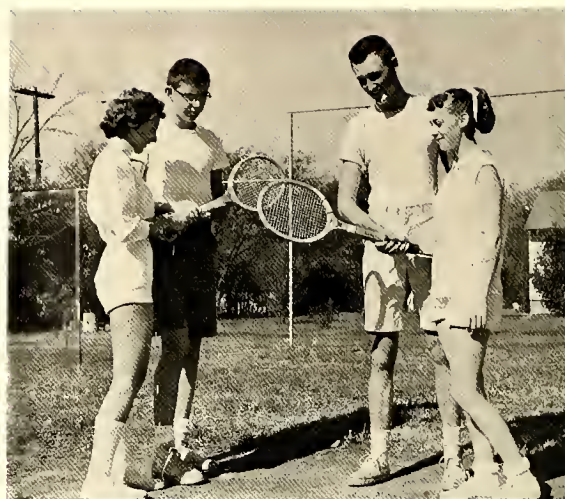

Although there were no gold cups awarded to the Mitchell College Girl's Basketball team for its scoring ability, the girls deserved tribute for the way they could enjoy themselves even in the face of defeat. Points in a score book were not what these girls gained. It was the more important joy of making deeper friendships through working together and sharing experiences with their teammates. This made the season highly successful in the minds of both the team and its coach, Miss Mary Edna Matheson.

BOY'S BASKETBALL TEAM

The Mitchell College Boy's Basketball team met the teams of the City League with vigor and determination. The coach, Dean J. Howard Allen, led the boys through many exciting battles. Each boy enjoyed matching wits and skill with the opposition, while working with his teammates. Not only did they have the prize of their own satisfaction after the 1957-1958 season, they also saw school spirit aroused by their efforts.

Intra

"Something for everyone" is the motto. From dancing to volleyball, there is some type of entertainment that fits all students. Physical Education offers many varied fields of exercise in football, basketball, tumbling, tennis, and archery. Nearly all students take advantage of intramurals.

With speed and finesse the 1957-58 Football Championship went to the Teddy Bears. The Boys' Basketball Champions were the Blue Devils. The Hittin' Hydras captured the girls' title.

Not all sports are on the organized scale, however there are many hard fought games on the Ping Pong Table. If bridge could be classified as a sport we might say the same about it.

Under the supervision and leadership of Dean Allen and Mrs. Herbert Hipps, we have had a full year of sports here at Mitchell. The referees' whistle coming from the gym is a very familiar sound, and the cry in the hall, "Anyone for tennis?"

Autographs

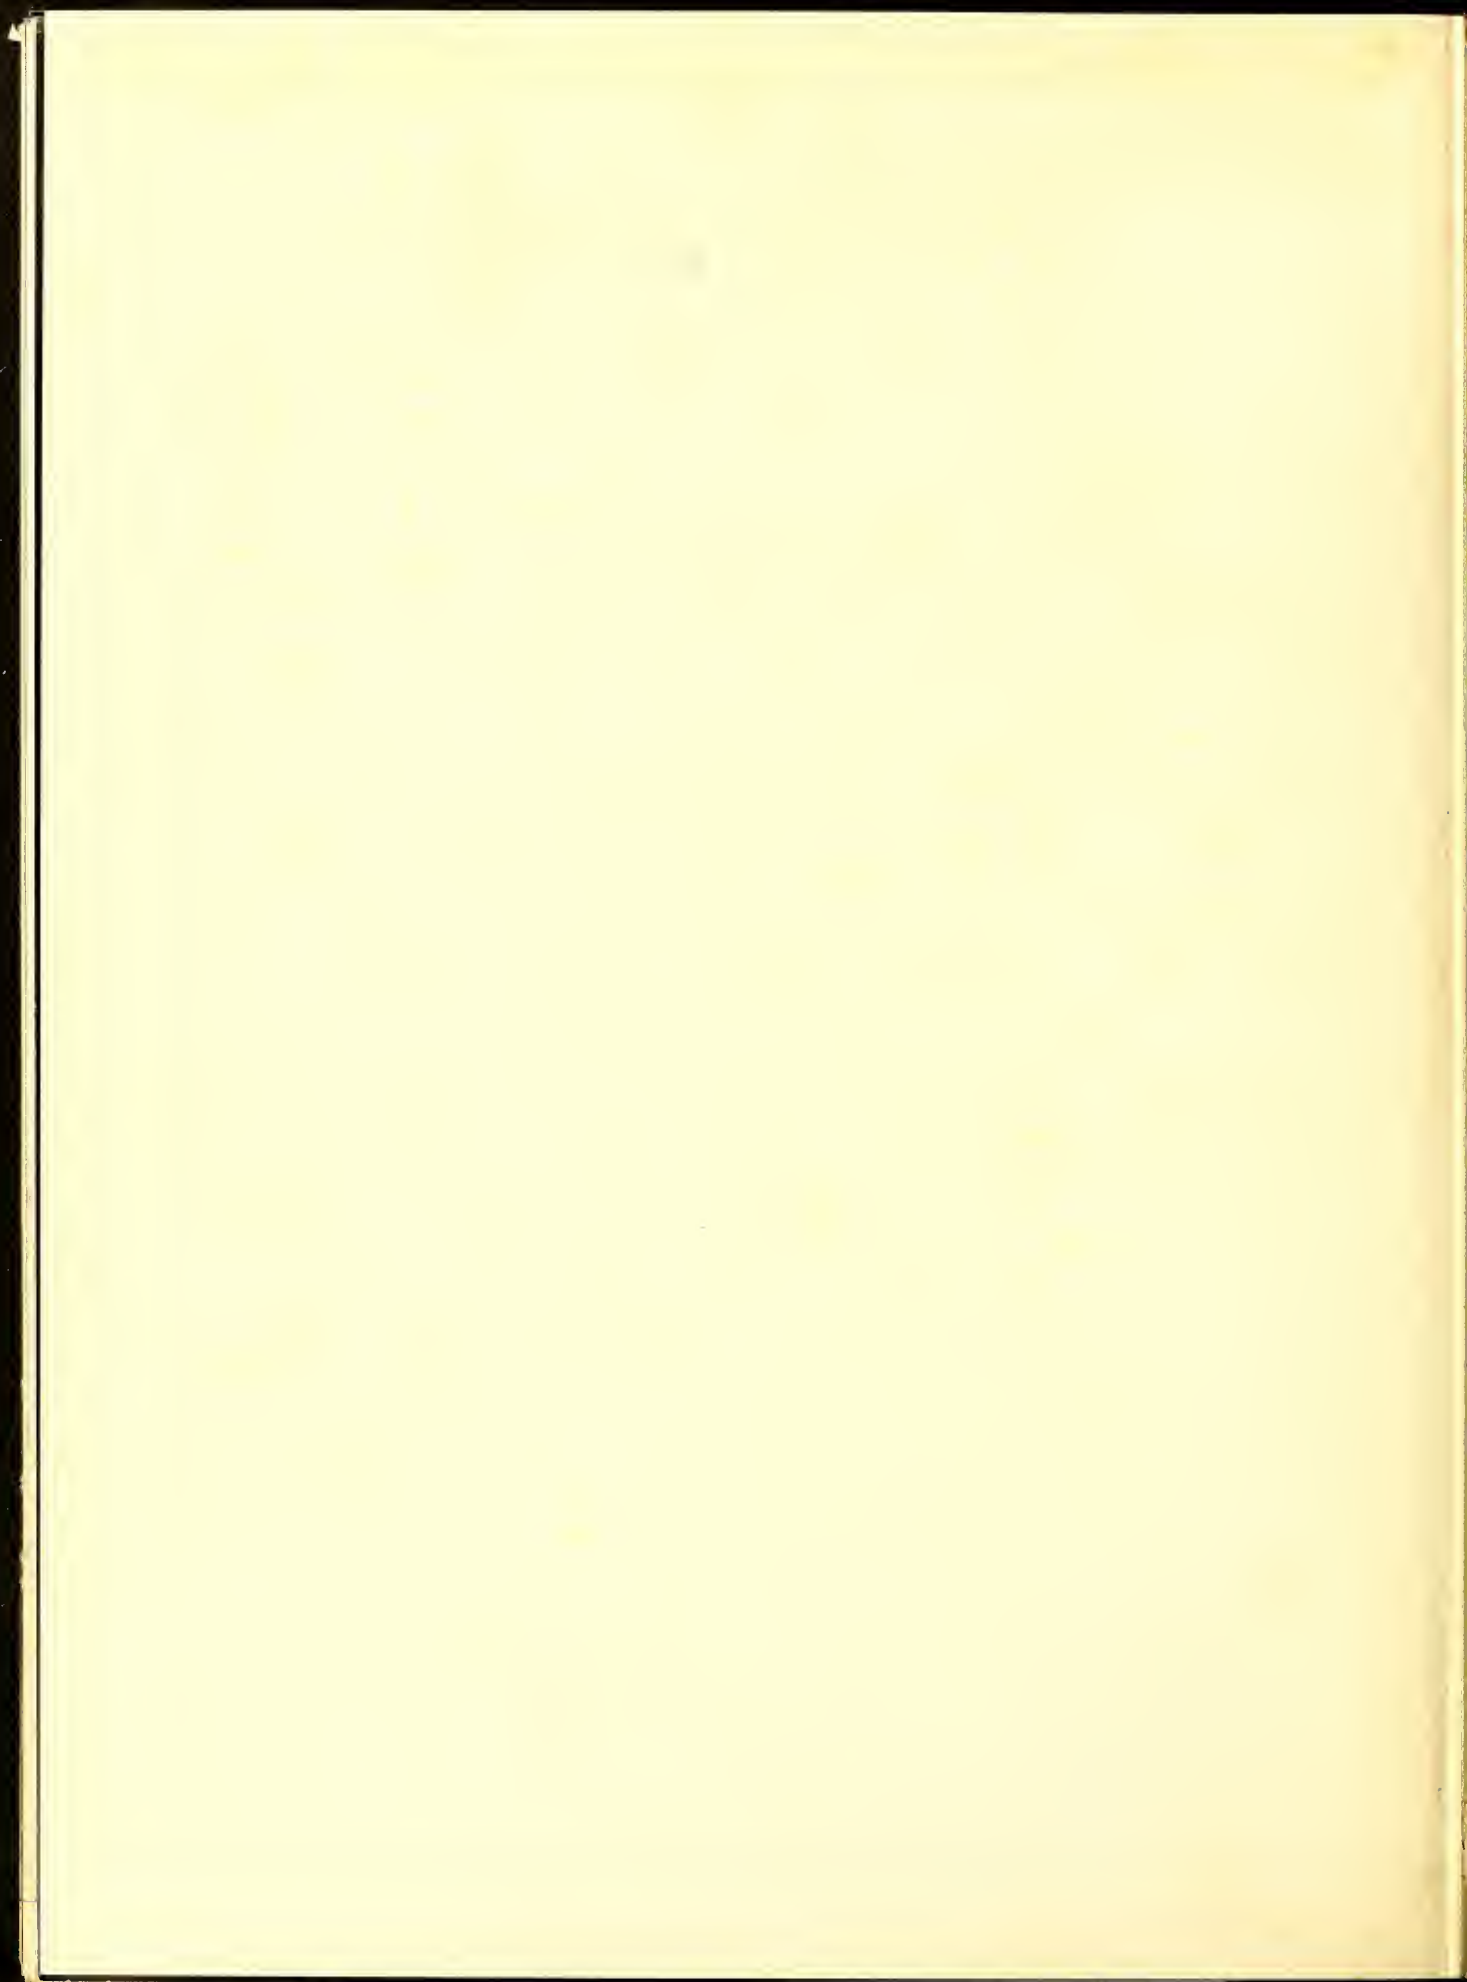

Closing . . .

We have presented to you, the students of Mitchell College, only a glimpse of what has been yours during the school year, 1957-1958. We have tried to recapture in picture and word those moments which have meant most to you. Though hours of combined efforts have gone into the preparation of this book, it has been impossible to distill but the essence. Whether group picture, snapshot, or quotation, we hope that for many years hence, it may bring to mind some person or some experience that has enriched your college life.
